This is not a juried show, but artists and their work are accepted based on uniqueness and quality of artwork, and Faire appropriateness. We strive for diversification and to give every artist at the show the best representation possible, so we do not admit artists with duplicate product or items that are in direct competition with other artists. You may be asked to remove items that conflict with permanent vendors.

The Northern California Renaissance Faire is a themed show. To keep with the atmosphere all participants and workers must be in Renaissance era costumes. We also encourage the booths to be decorated to “look the part.”
